

11 QUALITY INDICATORS FOR POST STROKE APHASIA SERVICES

A screener and/or assessment is completed to determine if communication impairment (including aphasia) is present.

A valid and reliable standardised assessment is conducted to determine the severity of aphasia.

Information about aphasia is provided to the person with aphasia.

Information about aphasia is provided to the person with aphasia's significant other(s).

Information about support is provided to the person with aphasia's significant other(s).

The primary communication partner of the person with aphasia is provided with communication partner training.

Individualised recommendations for communicating with the person with aphasia are provided to the treating team.

There is training for staff in supported communication for aphasia.

Goal setting is undertaken in partnership with the person with aphasia and their significant others.

The person with aphasia receives person/family centred care.

The person with aphasia receives speech and language therapy.

Learn more here:
<https://doi.org/10.1111/hex.14173>

